

Junior Evaluator position.

The ideal candidate is a graduate (master's degree / specialist) and, possibly, holds a Master's or PhD.

He/she also has skills in the field of social research methodology, experiences in the use of quantitative and qualitative methods, excellent fluency in English and the main IT tools, excellent writing skills and analytical skills developed. Knowledge of European programming is considered a qualifying requirement for the position.

Professional Requirements Required: Work experience of at least 1 year in support activities for the design, management, monitoring and evaluation of public policies.

Work site: Milan.

Timetable: Full time.

Please send your application to the valutazione@gruppoclas.com with the subject "Evaluation of EU funds"